Subject: [External] Re: Motion to Stay Deadlines for Pleading and Discovery

Mr. Butler,

I had in mind a general stay on deadlines until we can have a prehearing conference and sort things out. As you point out, ORS will have a response to Condor's motion to terminate or limit discovery due. I just filed, in part, a motion to strike, and a response to a motion to reconsider, which would carry deadlines for SCWSA. Presumably, the parties or putative intervenor could file other pleadings requiring deadlines, and I believe it would be consistent with the Commission's order to freeze everything until we can have a prehearing conference and you can decide how the parties can best present their positions to the Commission and proceed with discovery.

I appreciate your consideration.

Sincerely,

Charlie Terreni

Mr. Terreni and parties:

I am in receipt of a document which is, in part, a motion to stay deadlines for pleading and discovery. My quandry is that the Commission has not set any deadlines for pleadings or testimony at this point. I was appointed by the Commission to conference with the parties to establish a procedural and discovery schedule, but we have not yet had that conference. The only deadline that I can find is the one referred to by you in your Petition to Terminate or Limit the Scope of Inspection, Audit, or Examination being conducted by the Office of Regulatory Staff. In that document, you refer to a 15 day period from December 11, 2020 set by ORS for response to its requests. You have requested a Stay of that deadline in the Petition to Terminate. Please describe what other pleading and discovery deadlines that may exist for which you are seeking a Stay.

Thanks,

David Butler
